Did You Know ?

In Orsara, Puglia they celebrate the night of Fucacoste e Cocce Priatorje (‘bonfires and heads of purgatory’). The ‘cocce’ are carved pumpkins, originally in the shape of a cross, containing lit candles. This festival probably dates back as far as the year 1000. On the ‘Night of Purgatory,’ the night between November 1st and 2nd, pumpkins with the symbol of the cross were left in front of houses to drive the souls of the damned away from the evening banquet, which only good souls could take part in.

Pumpkins are also traditional in Calabria, especially in the town of Serra San Bruno. Children carve a pumpkin to represent a coccalu di muortu (a skull) then they wander the streets asking ‘Mi lu pagati lu coccalu?’ (‘Will you pay me for the skull?’), something very similar to our own ‘trick-or-treat?’

About UNICO ~ UNICO is the largest Italian American Service Organization in the United States
Unity, Neighborliness, Integrity, Charity, Opportunity

UNICO was founded on October 10, 1922, in Waterbury, Connecticut. A group of 15 men, led by Dr. Anthony P. Vastola, came together to create what has become a very special and very proud organization. It was Dr. Vastola's dream to create an Italian American service organization to engage in charitable works, support higher education, and perform patriotic deeds. Our motto is "Service Above Self".

Each year, the UNICO Foundation and the UNICO National Chapters across the country donate approximately $1 million to various charities. Scholarships continue to be the primary focus of UNICO, as roughly one-third of all monies raised goes to deserving students from all the chapter locations throughout the chain.

UNICO National has funded major research in Cooley's Anemia and Mental Health. Through its association with the Jimmy Valvano Foundation, it has funded over 10, $50,000 grants to help find a cure for Cancer. These worthy areas continue to receive generous support from the chapters and its members for these worthy causes.

If you would like to attend one of our meetings to see if you might be interested in joining UNICO, please contact us through any member, or through our email. We would be honored to have you as a member of our Passaic Valley UNICO Chapter.
